

This form has three parts:

- You must fill out Part 1 to provide the information we need to consider your application.
- We only need you to fill out Part 2 for posts where we have to carry out additional screening procedures. You should only fill it in if we have told you that it needs to be completed.
- Part 3 is optional but if you fill it out it will help us to make sure that our equal opportunities policy works and that we are advertising in the right places. It will also give us some information that we will need if we employ you. We will separate this part from the rest of the form when we get it. We will not use it as part of the selection process.

If you are successful, we will keep your application form. If you are unsuccessful, we will destroy it no later than twelve months from our decision not to employ you.

If you are applying for a job in security-sensitive area or which involves working with children or vulnerable adults, you will normally be required to undergo a Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) check and/or register with the Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA). Any sensitive information received by the University from you or an external agency during this process will be treated in confidence and will not be used unfairly against you.

If you are required to have a CRB check, the post you are applying for is exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means that you must disclose all criminal convictions found against you (spent and unspent) and any pending hearings. If the role you are applying for involves the opportunity for contact with children and/or vulnerable adults or their sensitive records, you must inform us if you have been barred from working with either or both of these vulnerable groups.

The University promotes equality of opportunity for all, as stated in our Equal Opportunities policy, and the information which you disclose to us about any convictions, pending hearings and so on against you will not automatically prevent you from being appointed (unless required by law). Information that you disclose to us may be discussed with you further if you reach the short-list stage of the process.

If you fail to disclose information that is subsequently revealed by a CRB check and/or ISA registration process, this could result in any conditional offer of employment being withdrawn and/or your referral to the ISA. Any information disclosed to us by the CRB/ISA will be discussed with you.

PART 3

MEDIA AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES MONITORING (OPTIONAL)

The University is an equal opportunities employer and is committed to treating all job applications on their merits. We will use the information collected from this optional part of the application for statistical and monitoring purposes so that we can make sure that our equal opportunities policy is working. We will separate this part from the rest of the form when we get it. We will not use it as part of the selection process. Sensitive information will be used by the University to generate anonymised statistics which will never be presented in a form that allows individuals to be identified.

We will record your sensitive personal information on our HR computer system. This system is password-protected and only trained staff have access to it. Only a limited number of key Human Resources, Payroll and Management Information Services staff can view information on disability, ethnic origin and nationality, and they will treat it with the strictest confidence.

We will have to know your gender and date of birth in order to make sure you pay the right amount of tax and National Insurance contributions. We also use your date of birth to work out your expected date of retirement. If you choose not to provide information on your gender and date of birth now, we will ask you for it again upon appointment. We will record this information on our HR computer system and only a limited number of trained staff in your prospective department will be able to access it, in addition to the staff described in the paragraph above.

If you are appointed, we have to provide some of the information in this part of the application to the Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA – <http://www.hesa.ac.uk/>) without your name being associated with it.
